All programs are free to the public thanks to the generosity of the Friends of the Longmont Library

This year's Stay Curious, adult summer learning, program is called "Dewey" It Yourself.

The program will feature workshops and events to fuel your curiosity and learn new things.

Learn basic home repair, how to create a terrarium, fix broken stuff at our U Fix It Clinic to name just a few.

Programs for Adults

Author Talk: Meet Local Author Nancy Peterson

May 7, 7-8 pm in the library meeting room

Her work "Not to Be Forgiven" is an at once nostalgic rendering of a child's patriotism and a hard hitting portrayal of the deep, ugly emotions war engenders. It will make you laugh and shock you to your core."

For more information / add this to my calendar...

¡Hablemos! Let's Talk!

Every Thursday at 5 pm, 2nd floor, Unquiet Study Area

Envision Longmont!

The City Requests Your Help!

Envision Longmont is an exciting community wide planning effort by the City to update and integrate its Comprehensive Plan and Multi-Modal Transportation Plan.

All Longmont residents are encouraged to participate throughout the process! You are invited to participate in the upcoming community workshop on Vision and Values:

D-Barn Reception Hall
136 S. Main Street, Longmont
Thursday, May 14, 2015
2:00-4:00 PM OR 6:00-8:00 PM

Can't make it in person? There will also be the ability to participate in this community conversation on-line after this workshop. Visit www.envisionlongmont.com for more information and to sign up for project updates.

If you need special assistance in order to participate, please contact the Planning and Development Services Department at 303-651-8330 in advance to make arrangements.

May the 4th Be With You!

The month of May contains a very special day for fans of the Star Wars films.

This month the library is celebrating with Yoda Speak (a k a Yodish) as an option on our self checkout stations.

"Yoda says: Here checkout your books."
